04 Before You Go

A short checklist that saves most trips from the usual surprises.

Pack

- [ ] Valid ID (some spots log visitors at the entrance)
- [ ] Small bills and coins, since entrance fees and vendors are usually cash-only
- [ ] Reusable water bottle
- [ ] Power bank, plus offline map screenshots or directions saved beforehand
- [ ] Basic first-aid kit and any personal medication
- [ ] Sunscreen and a hat
- [ ] A trash bag: pack out what you pack in

Good to know

- Mobile signal gets weak in the far mountain barangays, so screenshot directions and contact numbers beforehand.
- Roads to river and mountain spots can get rough or slippery after rain, so a private vehicle or habal-habal handles them better than a sedan.
- Coordinate with local guides or caretakers ahead of time for caving, camping, or larger group bookings.
- Bring exact change: entrance and environmental fees are usually small (₱10–₱60) and cash-only.
- Respect the environment: leave no trace, and ask permission before entering private farms or land.
